Description
Situated on the fourth floor of a residential building constructed in 1992, this well-appointed penthouse offers a welcoming living environment with a thoughtfully arranged interior.

The apartment comprises a comfortable living room, a dedicated dining area, one bedroom, a separate kitchen and a bathroom. Fully furnished and equipped, it includes carefully selected furniture, lighting and decorative elements, alongside a kitchen with essential appliances and a washing machine.

Air conditioning provides both heating and cooling, while a security entrance door and lift access add to the convenience of the property.

The defining feature of the residence is its exceptionally spacious private terrace. Complete with an awning and open views, this outdoor area provides an inviting setting for dining, relaxing or entertaining. Its southwest orientation further enhances the sense of light and openness.

Location – Goudi, Medical School District

Goudi is an established residential neighbourhood with convenient access to the medical and university institutions of central Athens. The apartment is approximately a ten-minute walk from Ambelokipi or Panormou Metro stations, while a bus stop directly outside the building provides a connection to the metro in approximately two to three minutes. Local shops, cafés and everyday services contribute to the area's practical and well-connected character.
