Description
Situated on the mezzanine floor of a residential building constructed in 1978, this front-facing apartment was comprehensively renovated in 2025, creating a refreshed and functional setting for contemporary living.

The property comprises one bedroom, a bathroom and comfortable living spaces, thoughtfully arranged to make efficient use of its 50 sqm interior. Fully equipped and ready for occupancy, it offers the convenience of a home that requires minimal preparation before moving in.

An additional feature is the availability of a 300 Mbps fibre internet connection, particularly valuable for residents who work remotely, study or rely on dependable digital connectivity.

Location – Skopeftirio Park, Kaisariani

The apartment enjoys a particularly appealing position near Skopeftirio Park, one of Kaisariani's most recognisable green spaces and an important landmark in the area's history.

The surrounding neighbourhood offers convenient access to bus connections, supermarkets, bakeries, cafés, banking services and ATMs, placing everyday essentials within easy reach. Kaisariani combines an established residential character with access to the wider Athens urban area, making it a practical and inviting place to call home.
